HUMANITIES CENTER

Advanced Leadership Institute (ALI) provides civically-focused professionals the space, skills, knowledge, and connections to collaborate on creating experiences that transform our community for the better.

ALI brings three generations together and empowers them to address critical community issues: ALI Senior Fellows (established community leaders), Stokes Fellows (professionals with a strong interest in civic leadership), and ALI Junior Fellows (select students from Cuyahoga Community College's Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Scholars Academy).

Delve into key community issues.

Work with top leaders to explore solutions.

Develop collaborative leadership skills.

Create lasting positive change in our community.

Identify ways to engage Clevelanders in this work.
